ROYAL REWARD FOR SYSCO GUEST SUPPLY

The Lord Lieutenant of Berkshire today visited the offices of Sysco Guest Supply in Aldermaston to present the company with the UK's highest accolade for business success, The Queen's Award for Enterprise.

Managing Director Andrew Keating receives the award from The Honourable Mrs Bayliss, Lord Lieutenant of the Royal County of Berkshire.

The award which was announced in April was one of only 160 awarded this year throughout the country, and one of only four in Berkshire.

Sysco Guest Supply reach out across Europe, the Middle East and Africa, to supply luxury toiletries and hotel operating supplies to many of the world's leading hotels.

The Queens Award for Enterprise for International Trade award has been made in recognition of the company's outstanding business achievement and contribution to British export.

"This award is both a great honour and a huge tribute to the Sysco Guest Supply team," said Managing Director Andrew Keating. "We have been under intense pressure as the success of the business has accelerated over the last couple of years, and the team has responded magnificently to ensure that our market share continues to grow, and that we offer an exceptional service to our existing customers. I am extremely proud that we have been selected for this award, and pay tribute to the hard work of the entire team."

Sysco Guest Supply work in collaboration with some of the world's most prestigious brands to supply guest amenities to the world's leading hotel chains and independent hotels. The guest amenities are selected to match the character and ambience of the individual hotels, and are shipped across continents to supply them.

Recent contracts have included the world-wide delivery of This Works, a new range of modern, natural guest amenities to one of the world's leading hotel brands, Radisson Blu Hotels & Resorts. This is in addition to an already impressive client list incorporating the Hilton Group, The Marriott Group & Intercontinental Hotels & Resorts, plus numerous luxury independent hotels.

Sysco Guest Supply is one of approximately 160 Queen's Awards winners that have been announced this year for outstanding business achievement in the fields of International Trade, Innovation and Sustainable Development. As a winner of the award, Sysco Guest Supply received an invitation to attend a special reception at Buckingham Palace and they can proudly use The Queen's Award Emblem in advertising, marketing and packaging as a symbol of their quality and success.

The awards are made annually by HM The Queen, and are only given for the highest levels of excellence demonstrated in each category.

The Sysco Guest Supply team celebrate with the Lord Lieutenant.
